TELSTAR DRAMA CLUB READYING ONE-ACT PLAY FOR NOVEMBER PRESENTATION

Blaine MacKay and Kathy O'Donnell, co-presidents of the Telstar High School Drama Club, announced the cast of the Drama Club's fall play, "The Odyssey of Runyon Jones." The one-act children's play about a 10 year old boy who has lost his dog will open to the public sometime in early November.

Runyon Jones, played by John Schachter, suffers through many adventures in his quest to find his lost dog Pokey who is in "Curgatory—the place where all ill-behaved curs are kept." He meets up with the absent-minded Father Time, played by Blaine MacKay; a buttersweet Mother Nature, played by Dorothy Brennan; a grumpy Troll, who has had some trouble in the past with some goats, played by Ken Meyers; and finally deals with the Board of Directors of Curgatory, who are sure of the rules but not why they should be applied.

M. S. A. D. #44 ADULT & COMMUNITY EDUCATION NEWS

Registration was held on the evening of Sept. 21 when people signed up for the fall course offerings. The total class enrollment to date is 239. In all, Webster accounted for 145 yards on pass receptions.

While Telstar was rolling to over 400 total yards and 13 first downs, the Rebel defense held Livermore Falls to three first downs.

Brooks wasted little time giving Telstar a lead it would never relinquish as he sped 85 yards around left end for a touchdown in the Rebels' first possession of the afternoon. Webster then converted.

Advantages of Buying a House

The decision on whether to rent or buy a home is one that eventually confronts almost every family. If it is your case, here are a few thoughts to consider.

First, an equity (cash value) is built up as you pay for the home over the years. And, its resale values can increase greatly (as has been the case in recent times) with rising real estate prices.

Also, property taxes and mortgage interest can be deducted from income taxes. This can be a sizable deduction, especially during the early years of the mortgage when about 90% of the monthly payment represents interest on the loan.

Mass., has been visiting at the home of her niece, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Daigle. John Head, West Bethel, her nephew came and got her to go visit her sister and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Head in West Bethel before returning home.

The Andover Senior Citizens met at the town hall Thursday P. M., Sept. 15, for a pot luck supper. Rev. Carl Kingsbury showed slides of places of interest he has visited in Florida during the winter. There was a good attendance.

Frankie Emerson and Louise Kern, Andover, Mass., spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emerson, Sr.

The hot-top was put on the tennis court, basketball court, and skateboard rink on Saturday, Sept. 30.

Greeters and Flower Committee for the month of October for the First Congregational Church are: Oct. 1, Anne Summerton and Larry White; Oct. 8, Diane Cutting and Roberta Learned; Oct. 15, Margaret Learned and Doty Jean Mills; Oct. 22, Ivy Thurston and Della Howard; Oct. 29, Violet Swain.

Don Mixer has been voted to serve Fred Greenlow's unexpired term as trustee. Arthur Myhrall is worship leader. The church has voted to purchase supplementary hymnals for the sanctuary pews. These will be paid for by individuals and not by church funds. If you would like to add your name to the list, speak to Leatrice Myhrall, Gertrude Percival or Judy Richardson. Oct. 8, 11 a. m. Church School and worship service. Sermon topic, "Good Power". Oct. 15, Maine Conference in Presque Isle. Rev. John Haverinen of South Paris will be the guest speaker here. Oct. 22, Family Sunday. Oct. 29, Halloween Party for Sunday School at the Christian Education Building, 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. The monthly supper held Saturday, Sept. 30 was very well attended.

Eveline Barrett, Corres.

Some one is building a new house below our house but haven't had a chance to find out who. Seven loads of mixed cement went by the house in an hours time.

Mrs. Alice Goff, Rumford, had the cast removed from her leg Sept. 27, then came to visit her sister, Eveline Barrett until Oct. 2, while her daughter, Arlene, and husband, Norman Abbott, went to Calais to the K. of P. convention.

Other callers were Sarah Doughty, Doris Lawrence, Herbert Stevens, Winthrop Conley, also Floyd Sumner and Wade Rainey made a new bed for well and fixed the window casing in the cellar, Norman and Arlene Abbott.

Mrs. David Lyons was in town and made arrangements for Wade Rainey and Floyd Sumner to clean out their well and make a new cover and put in chlorine.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Cohen and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hyam were called to Saugus, Mass., in the death of their 20 year old cousin and nephew who was killed in an auto accident in New Hampshire. The funeral was Monday, Oct. 2. Our sincere sympathy to the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hyam, Danville Junction, came for the supper Saturday and Phil introduced his new bride.

Herbert Stevens is having a septic system installed. Benson's Machinery has arrived to do the outside work.

The Community Club's public supper Sept. 30 was a success all around. Our thanks to all who helped in any way. Several new faces were seen. The school boys and girls surely saved us a lot of steps. They helped pour punch, bring in the hot rolls, clean up afterward and whatever was needed. They also enjoyed eating with

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

This week has brought beauty in many things. First, I saw, some time after midnight, the display of northern lights from my bed room window. A faint reddish tinge first attracted my attention. The air was still, the night silent. The sheets of shimmering lights streamed upward toward the zenith. At times they spread left or right as if the wind had hit them and tried to blow them out. It made the whole sky seem alive. Occasionally there was a streak of electric blue but more often just beams as if a searchlight were being turned on the sky. An experience to remember.

Second, we heard the gabble of geese then saw the flock heading south. At first they looked disorganized but in a short time they made their V. We could see them easily in the low rays of the early sun against the clear blue of the cloudless sky. Their ragged clamor could be heard even after we could no longer see them.

Third, Ruth took Fay and me for a ride to look at the color. We drove through valleys, across rivers, and into the mountains of New Hampshire. We left the car to take a trail into the woods. This curved gracefully between the groves of maples, oaks, birches, beeches, poplars, and evergreens. Occasionally a gentle breeze brushed through the boughs and the rocking sent a leaf to the ground.

There were chirps of the remaining birds and of the chipmunks. These were the only sounds that pervaded the lazy tranquility. No, not quite the only sound, for some kept saying, "See that!" or "Just look at this one!" Then there was a stop for a picture. It was gorgeous. Maples ran in color from scarlet to maroon. The birches wore shimmering gold leaves above their dresses of white. What magnificent birches they were! So big, straight, and tall, queens of the forest.

The mountain maple wore leaves of subtle pink and purplish hue. The ferns were a soft brown. The sumac was fire, pure fire. Each season has its own beauty but autumn is wrapped in glory. What a riot of color intermingles at this time. It's the pageant of the year.

We followed the trail to ledges where we could look up the river. Shifting shadows on the still surface darkened with the moods of the sun. We looked over the little settlement of Shelburne and to Mt. Washington, where the train was puffing its smoke, as it descended the mountain, as it descended the mountain.

I like to place my feet on this

SENIOR CITIZEN MENU

Tuesday, Oct. 10: Barbecued chicken, parsnip potato, mixed vegetables, rolls, butter, oatmeal cookie, DB/cal, diet fruit, milk.

grown-over trail and follow it. It was fun to feel the springiness of the moss and leaves beneath my feet and to hear the snap of dry twigs. The outcropping boulders displayed their lichens. I usually stop to look and to marvel at their minute etchings and tiny green shells.

Here we ate our lunch ever watching the scenery. Another ledge not too far beyond us, we visited, then turned back on the trail.

A fungus or two was chosen by the artists to bring home to paint. We went and then we came back to our own Greenwood. Off there to the left was a brilliant yellow maple which we admire every autumn. Down by the pond stands the ash in its fantastic color. The maples were red against the pines beyond. We agreed that the color here was as beautiful as any place we had seen. But always I come home from a wood's walk refreshed. World tensions, where men compete for material things vanish; leaving a tangy smell, a blue haze, and quiet ways of color.

On Monday, Ruth Hastings, Lettie Brooks, Lillian Curtis and I had lunch with Dorothy Ross at camp on Round Pond.

Rena and Dorothy Curtis were in Kennebunk on Tuesday to see Dorothy's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Delemontex. It was the first time that they had seen each other since 1938.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis this week were John Swan, Locke Mills; Donald Bowman, Canton; Mildred Bowman, Hebron.

Phil Bentley, Auburn, came to see Frank Curtis on Tuesday and they went to Conway, N. H., for the day.

Mabel Nichols of Tampa, Fla., is visiting Minnie Buck in West Paris and they called on us on Sunday evening. I was delighted to see her and although I was about seven years old when she moved to Florida I have always remembered her.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hayes and family were at the home of his parents on Saturday.

Newry

— Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres. —

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tetley attended a wedding in West Warwick, R. I., during the week end. Mrs. Larry Cummings and children, Madison, were Sunday guests of her mother, Mrs. Louise Learned.

Peter Baker and children, Hanover, were Sunday dinner guests of his mother, Mrs. Mary Tripp.

Mrs. Paul Melchin and children of Hyde Park, Mass., were guests of her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Morton, last week while her husband and Joe Shannon, Lexington, Mass., were at their camp at Aziscoos Lake.

Supper guests of Mrs. Eleanor Morton Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morton Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Everett Saunders and family, Bethel, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald York and family, Bar Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur French, South Windsor, Conn. were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanley Hale.

Mrs. Vickie Morton was guest of honor at a surprise personal shower at the home of Mrs. Persis Post Sunday evening. Mrs. Sue Wight and Mrs. Helen Morton were co-hostesses. Attending besides the hostesses and honored guest were Roberta Saunders, Mrs. Patricia Saunders and Mrs. Jane Grover, Bethel, Mrs. Eloise Vail, Stoneham, Lynda Haegele, Eleanor Morton, Nancy Wight, Rae Bartholomew, Doris Hale, Audrey Brooke, Ethelene Wight, Sylvia Wight, Karlene Bachelder. Sending gifts but unable to attend were Doris Brown, Ida Powers, Loretta Berry, Gilberte Seeley, Lillian Lowell, Beatrice Seeley, Brenda Bartholomew, Louise Tetley, Louise Learned, Paula Wight, Gail Wight, Cheryl Jordan, June Swan, Susan Bowie, Becky Melchin and Linda York. Mrs. Morton received many nice gifts and refreshments were served.

World Communion Sunday was observed at the Newry Community Church Sunday. After the service the congregation and Pastor stood and formed a circle, joining hands in the center aisle and sang "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." Bible Study will be held Thursday evening at 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Owen Wight. The lesson will be on the third chapter of St. John.

Mrs. Doris Lane is a patient at the Stephens Memorial Hospital, Norway, at this writing.

The approaches to the new bridge across Wight Brook have been hot topped. Traffic has been using the new bridge about a month but the road was not paved until last week. The new bridge is located down stream from the old one, which was built in 1925. The old bridge was on a curve and was too narrow for today's heavy traffic, and has been the scene of several accidents over the past few years. The new structure also lessens the grade after leaving the bridge heading north.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Richardson, Pascoag, R. I., who are travelling through New England in their camper, stopped at Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Seeley's for two days last week.

A coffee will be held following services at the Newry Church Sunday. Plans will be discussed to organize a Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jewell, Lebanon, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hall, Monday. Walter and Ada Sawyer, Mechanic Falls, called on Roger and Amy Hanscom Tuesday.

Pauline Smith, Corres.

Mary and Roy R. Smith called on Iva Fox Sunday.

Audrey Purrington, Cicely Tripp and little boy visited Iva Fox on Monday. Rose Mary, Ken Smith and Stephen also were callers.

Ada Malia, Iva Fox, had supper with Linda Allen Friday night.

Edna, Carl Estes' returned to Brunswick for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Crosby and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crosby of Massachusetts are at their camp on Cushman Pond brook.

As the United Church of Christ was closed due to the retreat at Sebago, some of us went to Stoneham Church. We heard a fine sermon and enjoyed the coffee.

Dinner at Leroy Smith's Friday was in honor of Florende Tibbets' birthday (friend of ours). Those attending were Marion Kendall, Esther Harriman, Florence Tibbets, Ada Malia, Iva Fox, Pauline Smith.

Ruby Largey of Fryeburg and Gladys Gross of Bethel called on Marian Kendall; took her for a ride to see her sister-in-law, Fannie Bickford on her 94th birthday in Rochester, N. H.

Sure pretty, one doesn't have to go around the mountains to see color.

Iva Fox, Ada Malia, had dinner with Hazel Allen this week.

Kermit Merrill and family were at their home here over the week end.

Sunday night sounds like rain. They call snow white gold in winter. The rain lately would be worth as much, to help out those who carry water, or keep the fire conditions down.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST

Raggedy Ann and Teddy Bear

Children's toys that delight even the older folk, toys designed to cuddle with and to bring happiness and contentment to a youngster. The fleeting years go by and no longer is Raggedy Ann needed—often torn and discarded, forgotten as it hangs upside down in an old toy box, hanky in pocket but no one to wipe its tears. How precious were those childhood days when carefree as a summer's breeze we played our games; but as the years went on we grew up and were faced with the cares of the world—were too often forgotten by others—tossed aside as nothing.

Just as Raggedy Ann can be repaired, cleaned and put back to a useful life—our Lord Jesus promises us a new life—productive and happy, if we but let Him—He, as the great physician will bind up our wounds, Isaiah 61, "to heal the broken hearted" and give to us a new and eternal life with joy, peace and purpose—if we but take Him at His word, to walk in the truth that Jesus Christ is Lord and we bear witness of our love of Him.

How many are the wasted years we fritter away chasing the elusive butterfly—dreams that really never come true—oh, what need—less pain we bear, struggling our own way through life when God already has a perfect plan for each of us.

Unlike Raggedy Ann and Teddy Bear we cannot repair our own lives—only our Maker can—and He will abundantly pardon as we forsake our own way and seek Him—He who first loved us—John 15:9 "As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; continue ye in my love." Yes, God our heavenly Father loves us all and calls us from a world of cares and sin to be His own righteous ones. "He stands at the door of your heart, waiting for you to open it and invite Him in." Rev. 3:20.

"Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Matt. 11:28, 29, 30.
